

Afternoon tea

SHUNBUN - 春分 -

Shunbun, also known as the Spring Equinox, is the 4th of the 24 solar terms in the traditional East Asian calendars. It's the day when day and night are nearly equal in length, and from this day forward, days become longer. In Japan, it's a holiday to celebrate nature and cherish all living creatures.

Based on wellness, one of the symbols of Six Senses, we have a selection of healthy sweets and savory dishes, including gluten-free and refined sugar-free options. In addition, based on the idea of the 24 solar terms, this afternoon tea incorporates Japanese elements and the menu changes approximately every two weeks.

SEKKI

Inspired by the concept of Sekki, the 24 solar terms in the traditional Japanese calendar, we offer a wholesome lineup of contemporary cuisine infused with traditional Japanese culinary wisdom. Crafted in the lively open kitchen with locally and sustainably sourced produce and seafood, the menu constantly evolves to reflect the respective micro-seasons of the year.

A Holistic Journey

This package includes afternoon tea and a workshop at Alchemy Bar in Six Senses Spa Kyoto. Alchemy Bar is a Six Senses-exclusive facility that holds hands-on workshops using natural ingredients. In this package, you can participate in a workshop where you can make your own bath salts, body scrubs, and other items to take home (items vary depending on the date). The workshop also uses ingredients that reflect the 24 solar terms, just like the afternoon tea. This is an experiential afternoon tea package that allows you to experience wellness at home, not just eat.
