

Six Senses AMAALA, Saudi Arabia

Saudi Arabia's visionary new coastal destination AMAALA spans more than 1,600 square miles of protected Red Sea landscapes, framed by ancient desert peaks on one side and glittering coves on the other. Within this dramatic setting, Six Senses AMAALA unfolds between gentle beaches and a mangrove-fringed lagoon. Inspired by traditional Saudi coastal villages, and with a striking clifftop Mesa at its heart, the resort weaves 100 suites and villas and 25 privately owned residences into the natural terrain. This creates a village-like vibe designed to inspire cultural discovery and meaningful connections. Intuitive and joyful, wellness is the thread connecting everything, from the calming design to spa journeys that blend ancient wisdom with modern science, and cuisine shaped by the brand's commitment to conscious living.

ACCOMMODATIONS

Blending into the coastal desertscape, accommodations are built with locally sourced materials that reflect the understated elegance of the brand's sustainable design standards. The 10 Suites, 54 Pool Suites, 6 Deluxe Pool Suites, 30 Pool Villas with one to four bedrooms, and 25 branded residences offer varied options to suit all guest preferences. Bay-side suites open onto the beach and family pool, while lagoon villas are closer to the spa and embrace tranquil lagoon views. Interiors reveal earthy textures and refined craftsmanship, with calming tones, natural wood furnishings, and layered textiles creating warm, contemporary sanctuaries. Outdoor spaces are shaded by natural timber pergolas, filtering light into shifting shadow patterns across walls and floors.

SEA VIEW SUITE (1,098 sq.ft./102 sq.m.)
Steps from the main beach, family pool, and beach restaurant, Sea View Suites are set on the second level of a two-story building, offering an elevated vantage point and sweeping sea views. The open-plan interior with bedroom and living area opens onto a terrace with outdoor hot tub.

LAGOON SUITE (1,098 sq.ft./102 sq.m.)
Similar to Sea View Suites in layout and size, Lagoon Suites overlook the tranquil mangrove lagoon on the resort's southern side, closer to lap pool and the spa. The open-plan interior with bedroom and living area opens onto a terrace with outdoor hot tub and serene lagoon views.

POOL SUITE (1,281 sq. ft./119 sq. m.)
Located in the bay with its wide sandy beach and close to the family pool, Pool Suites feature an open-plan bedroom and living area that flows onto a sun-filled terrace with private pool. The bathroom connects through glass doors to a small, sheltered courtyard, forming an intimate outdoor sanctuary with outdoor shower and cushioned daybed. An ideal base for couples and small families seeking the best of both, lively beach days and peaceful moments of retreat.

LAGOON POOL SUITE (1,281 sq. ft./119 sq. m.)
Set around the tranquil mangrove lagoon on the resort's southern side, Lagoon Pool Suites offer a serene, nature-immersed setting. The warm and elegant living and sleeping space opens onto a private pool terrace bathed in natural light. The indoor bathroom extends to a shaded outdoor courtyard with shower and cushioned daybed. Perfect for couples seeking tranquility and connection with the surrounding nature.

DELUXE POOL SUITE (1,959 sq. ft./182 sq. m.)
These spacious suites on the northern side of the resort feature an expansive living area and separate bedroom that flow onto a 73 sq. m. terrace with comfy lounge areas and private pool. The bathroom opens through full-length glass doors onto a small courtyard with cushioned seating and outdoor shower.
The main beach with family pool and beach restaurant are just steps away.

LAGOON DELUXE POOL SUITE (1,959 sq. ft./182 sq. m.)
Overlooking the lagoon, these generously sized suites offer 109 sq. m. of indoor living space and a 73 sq. m. terrace with private pool. Similar in layout to the Deluxe Pool Suites on the resort's northern side, they feature equally spacious living areas, a separate bedroom, and the same indoor/outdoor bathroom design. Their lagoon setting and proximity to the spa make them a natural choice for guests drawn to calm and wellness.

ONE BEDROOM POOL VILLA (2,099 sq. ft./195 sq. m.)
Set around the azure lagoon, One Bedroom Pool Villas offer generous living and dining space and a separate bedroom, pantry, and powder room. The living area, with its large sofa and dedicated dining corner, invites relaxation and easy gatherings with family and friends. Everything flows onto a 77 sq. m. terrace with private pool, while the bathroom opens through glass doors onto a sheltered courtyard. Close to the spa and fitness center, these villas are particularly well suited for extended stays and wellness-focused guests.

TWO BEDROOM POOL VILLA (3,272 sq. ft./304 sq. m.)
Ideal for families or groups of friends, these villas offer generous living and dining space with two en-suite bedrooms – one king, one twin – opening onto a spacious terrace with private pool, outdoor dining, and lounge areas. Some two-bedroom villas can connect to an adjacent one-bedroom villa, creating a three-bedroom retreat with dual living areas and two pools. Close to the spa and fitness center, they are also perfectly placed for evening strolls along the mangrove boardwalks.

THREE BEDROOM POOL VILLA (5,371 sq.ft./499 sq.m.)
Offering three en-suite bedrooms and expansive indoor and outdoor spaces, these villas are designed for larger families or groups who appreciate both togetherness and breathing room. Combining a two-bedroom and one-bedroom villa, they offer dual living and dining areas that allow everyone to spread out or come together as the day unfolds. Shaded terraces with two pools and sun loungers invite lazy afternoons and long evenings under the stars.

FOUR BEDROOM POOL VILLA (7,201 sq.ft./669 sq.m.)
Our most expansive villa is positioned on the first line of the lagoon, where floor-to-ceiling windows frame uninterrupted beach and water views. Four en-suite bedrooms, dual living and dining areas, and two private pools offer generous space for extended families and larger groups to settle into their own pace, coming together or retreating to their own space as the mood dictates. Multiple terraces with sun loungers and shaded areas provide choice throughout the day.

DINING

Dining at Six Senses AMAALA follows the brand's Eat With Six Senses philosophy: fresh, made-from-scratch food prepared with natural ingredients. House-baked breads, dishes celebrating the bounty of land and sea, and herbs picked straight from the garden come together to nourish body and soul. A defining highlight is the resort's pioneering non-alcoholic beverage program, set to be among the most sophisticated in the region, featuring fermented drinks, botanical infusions, probiotic tonics, and crafted signature mocktails designed for wellbeing and celebration alike.

SORAYA

Perched atop the Mesa with panoramic Red Sea views, Soraya is an evening destination in its own right. The menu celebrates an artful blend of Japanese precision and Latin American passion: delicate cuts of fish and seafood and citrus-bright ceviche, refined knife work, bold marinades, and powerful flavors. The Red Sea's daily catch is served in a setting that is theatrical, vibrant, and made for long evenings shared around the table.

JOUD

Drawing on the flavors of the Mediterranean and Middle East, Joud serves nourishing breakfasts with homemade wellness shots and kombuchas, relaxed lunches, and vibrant dinners featuring wood-fired pizzas and fresh mezze. Designed for connection, balance, and effortless enjoyment throughout the day.

BEACH SHACK

At Beach Shack, the mood is relaxed and the menu knows no borders. From noon to sunset guests linger just steps from the water, enjoying grilled seafood, homemade pastas, vibrant salads, small bites, desserts, and refreshing mocktails in a laid-back beachfront setting. Once a week, the space transforms into an open-air dinner experience beneath the stars.

BUNNA

The scent of freshly roasted beans draws guests into this coffee roastery and café throughout the day. Following a true bean-to-cup approach, coffee is roasted on site and served as house blends inspired by the Arabian Peninsula, alongside cold brews infused with local botanicals.

MAKHBAZ

This artisan bakery is dedicated to simple, time-honored techniques. Slow-fermented loaves and freshly baked flatbreads are made by hand and guided by the Six Senses philosophy of care, quality, and connection.

NAFAS

This cooking school and gathering space is set among gardens and courtyards, home to hands-on culinary masterclasses and meaningful gatherings that transform into memorable celebrations.

DESTINATION DINING

The Red Sea landscape becomes your dining room with private dinners among dramatic rock formations, beachside feasts framed by firelight, and clifftop sundowners on the Mesa.

CHEF'S TABLE

Immersive culinary storytelling led by our senior chefs, where live preparation, ingredient education, and cultural connection unfold at an intimate table. A dedicated women's chef's table, hosted by one of our talented female chefs in a private setting, becomes a joyful gathering inviting shared stories and laughter.

WELLNESS & SPA

Six Senses Spa AMAALA is inspired by a hidden desert oasis, sheltered between high sloping walls, with lush vegetation, pools, and waterfalls creating a sense of refuge. Treatment rooms open onto private terraces with lagoon views, and an outdoor Watsu pool invites weightless floating. A dedicated sound dome offers deeply calming sensory experiences, while the Longevity Center features cutting-edge biohacking including cryotherapy, PEMF therapy, and advanced longevity protocols. From signature massages, hammam rituals and family treatments to daily yoga and fitness classes to multi-day individual programs and group retreats, wellness journeys are designed to feel intuitive, joyful, and deeply restorative.

SUSTAINABILITY

Six Senses AMAALA is certified LEED Platinum for sustainable building and part of a destination committed to operating entirely on renewable energy. A dedicated on-site sustainability team upholds the brand's rigorous environmental standards.

At the resort's heart lies a mangrove lagoon, a natural haven unique among AMAALA properties, supporting vital marine ecosystems that protect coastlines and absorb carbon. Wooden boardwalks meander through the mangroves, and a Junior Mangrove Ecologist program invites younger guests to learn to plant and protect these coastal forests. In the Earth Lab, hands-on workshops also invite a deeper engagement with the natural world, from making upcycled art or beeswax wraps to blending essential oils from fresh-picked herbs and flowers.
